

Living Funeral
Ceremony
Practitioner Training

Thank you for your interest in bringing this powerful ceremony to your community. It is a potent and transformative gift that is sure to enrich not only the lives around you, but also your own. Since I began performing these ceremonies, I have watched my life evolve in ways I did not expect. This practice truly helps move the spirit in the direction of positive change, growth, and discovery.

What you'll receive:

- The Steady Waves Living Funeral Ceremony proprietary script, with lifetime updates if any are made
- Full training for both in-person and virtual living funeral ceremonies. Training takes place over Zoom and consists of roughly 4-6 hours spread over several sessions.
 - Guidance on material supplies
 - Complete ceremony guide
 - Marketing, pricing, and space rental guidance
- Unlimited e-mail support and Zoom calls for as long as needed.

As a Living Funeral Practitioner, you will be able to:

- Offer ceremonies as often as you'd like within your community and beyond
- Create and grow a thriving business to supplement your income
- Help your clients achieve breakthroughs and realize where they may be stuck in their lives.
- Bring a unique service to your community and spur much-needed conversations surrounding death and dying
- More fully relate to clients who are at the end of life

Pricing Breakdown

I have made sure to price this package at a rate that is easily recoupable. It is important to me that this practice be attainable for those ready to start offering this service to their communities. That being said, this training is offered on a sliding scale and I am happy to consider personal budgets and restrictions.

Base fee: $750 (payment plans available) Materials cost:

Since this ceremony is customizable, there is no set price to list. We will work together to determine which materials will work best for you and your personal style and sensibilities.
